AHLF MHA STUDENT AMBASSADOR

Welcome to Leah Allman, new student ambassador to AHLF. The AHLF committee is sponsoring ACE/AHLF membership for 1-2 students to become more engaged with API networking. Leah will be working with our committee to execute events and fundraising for future student scholarships.

ABACUS: SMALL ENOUGH TO JAIL FILM SCREENING & PANEL

Sunday, May 20 at 11:45 am - 2:30PM

Wing Luke Museum (719 S King St, Seattle, WA 98104)
FREE Screening

From director Steve James, "Abacus: Small Enough to Jail" (Academy Award Nominee - Best Documentary Feature), tells the incredible saga of the Chinese immigrant Sung family, owners of Abacus Federal Savings of Chinatown, New York. Accused of mortgage fraud, the indictment and trial forces the Sung family to defend themselves and their bank's legacy in the Chinatown community, over the course of a five-year legal battle.

Chanterelle Sung and other local panelists will discuss the case following the screening at 1:45 pm. Joining Chanterelle Sung on the panel are:

- Robert Chang, Executive Director of the Korematsu Center and Professor of Law, Seattle University
- Marsha Chien, WA State Assistant Attorney General
- Joseph Lachman, Community Activist
- Moderator: Connie So, Principal Lecturer, University of Washington
